

UN WOMEN Resolution 1.1

UN Women

Co-Sponsors:

Bosnia and Herzegovina, Burkina Faso, Federative Republic of Brazil, Islamic Republic of Iran, Japan, Kingdom of Belgium, Kingdom of Spain, Oriental Republic of Uruguay, People's Republic of Bangladesh, People's Republic of China, Republic of Albania, Republic of Colombia, Republic of Cuba, Republic of Ghana, Republic of India, Republic of Indonesia, Russian Federation, The State of Israel, The United States of America

Topic: Eliminating Violence Against Women

Recognizing that violence against women is a worldwide issue,

Keeping in mind that religion and culture may contribute to the outcome of these solutions,

Noting that women are not only physically abused, but also mentally and emotionally harmed,

Understanding that not all cases of violence against women are reported,

1. Requests women to take action to protect themselves and others through training for defense, reporting any form of harassment, and seeking help;
2. Calls upon organizations such as He for She, UNiTE, and Step it Up for Gender Equality to educate families about the threat of violence against women;
3. Supports governmental organizations going into correctional facilities to work with both sexes, to work on their physical, emotional, and mental health;
4. recommends various curriculums according to sex and age;
5. Encourages the co-sponsors to aid each other by offering resources in the form of funding as well as using similar methods in the form of educating and providing resources for women; and
6. Requests governments to enforce stronger punishments for violators to prevent repetitive offenses by not only sending offenders to correctional facilities, but also requiring them to attend mandatory counseling.

UN WOMEN Resolution 1.2

UN Women

Co-Sponsors:

Arab Republic of Egypt, Federative Republic of Brazil, Islamic Republic of Pakistan, Japan, Kingdom of Belgium, Republic of Finland, Republic of India, Republic of Korea, Republic of Niger, Republic of the Sudan, Swiss Confederation

Topic: Eliminating Violence Against Women

The General Assembly, in observation of the 107th celebration of International Women's Day, which recognizes women empowerment,

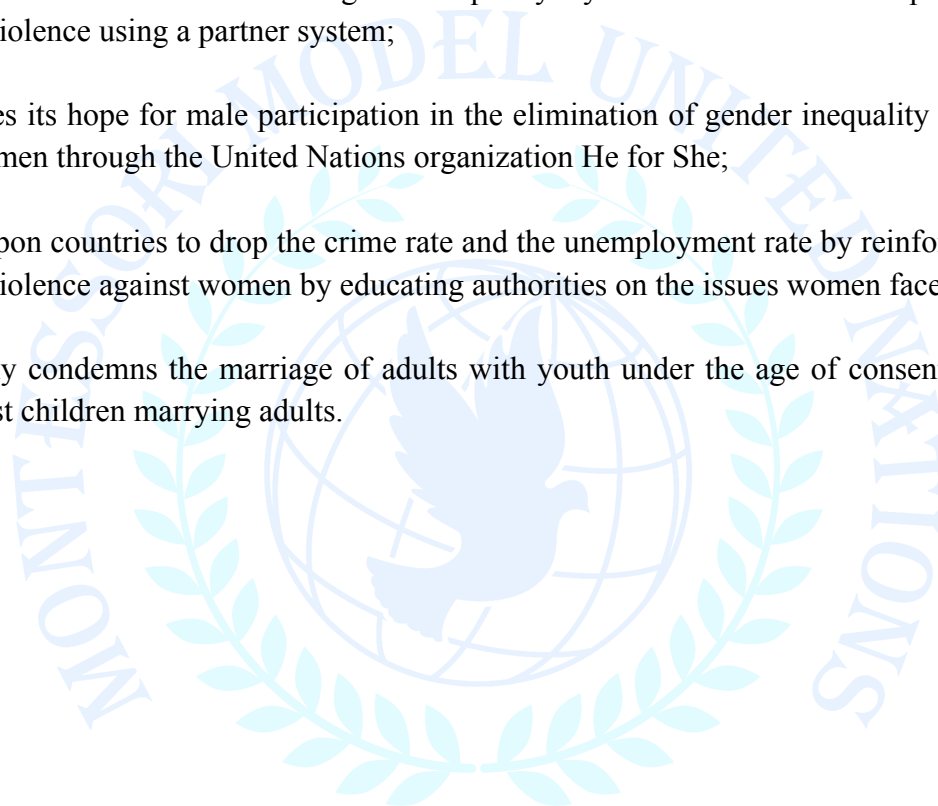

Reaffirming its Resolution 1325 of 31 October 2000, which addresses the part of what women should have in time of conflict,

Guided by previous actions taken by the United Nations,

Taking into consideration previous efforts of the United Nations and non-governmental organizations,

1. Encourages schools in developing countries to provide a co-ed education by convincing them that a co-ed education would better teach students how to communicate well with people of the opposite gender;
2. Expresses desire to educate current and all future generations of people, particularly those in positions of authority, by adding equality classes to the current curriculum at schools and having authorities take classes on gender equality;
3. Calls upon organizations to spread awareness about the types of violence that the women are facing daily by explaining to organizations the importance of awareness;
4. Authorizes the creation of more shelters for victims of violence that provide financial and moral support as well as self-defense programs and counseling by creating organizations to hold fundraisers in multiple countries to provide shelters for countries who need the assistance;
5. Considers the importance of publicizing women's activism by using organizations to show that it is beneficial for women to speak up and be confident;

6. Calls upon developing countries to provide easier access to abortion during the first trimester in the case of rape by holding fundraisers in multiple countries and asking the governments to assist in any way that they can;
7. Emphasizes the need for equal opportunities for both genders by spreading awareness through various organizations;
8. Requests countries with stable gender equality systems to assist developing countries eliminate violence using a partner system;
9. Expresses its hope for male participation in the elimination of gender inequality and violence against women through the United Nations organization He for She;
10. Calls upon countries to drop the crime rate and the unemployment rate by reinforcing laws to eliminate violence against women by educating authorities on the issues women face every day;
11. Strongly condemns the marriage of adults with youth under the age of consent by creating laws against children marrying adults.

Inspiring youth to create a better world