Terminology regarding fees

TERMINOLOGY REGARDING FEES

Financial Commitment Deadline for Year Long Programs and Courses

Registrants acknowledge and warrant that the EFCD date locks in the minimum number of the registered participants for the group. From this point forward, the Registrant is financially responsible for the full and timely payment of all fees, expenses, and other charges associated with each and every participant identified in the registration, including, without limitation, all registration fees associated therewith.

Read more on our Policy document on page 3.

Final Payment Deadline and Liability Fees

All payments due by Registrants as of the Early Financial Commitment Deadline (“EFCD”), may be made at any time up to and including the Final Payment Deadline (“FPD”).

Registrants acknowledge and agree that any outstanding fees (after the FPD deadline) shall be deemed late and that a late fee of thirty percent (30%) will be imposed by YFBW and incurred by Registrants for all of the remaining balance due.

All fees (including liability surcharges) must be paid prior to the Step 3 deadline, when the position papers are due. Following the step 3 deadline, if any charges remain unpaid, registrants must also receive approval for participation with the understanding that an additional liability fee equal to another 30% of the balance due must be paid by Registrants. Nonetheless, YFBW has the right to not accept registrants if they have not paid all charges and liability fees in full by the step 3 deadline. Moreover, please note that payment of all fees must be completed before conference dates. Under no circumstances will delegations be allowed to participate without having paid in full all fees (including all liability fees), before the arrival of the registrants at the conference, for their full participation group.

“Land Grab” Penalty: Attrition Clause for Major Reductions PRIOR to the EFCD

In the event that a twenty percent (20%) or greater attrition of the number of participants occurs between Registrants’ original delegation registration date and the EFCD, Registrants acknowledge and agree that a fee of one hundred dollars (USD $100.00) for the US YLP and conferences or one hundred Euros (100€) for the YLP and Rome Conferences per delegate will be imposed by YFBW, incurred by Registrants, and be paid by Registrants by the FPD.

Last Date for Registration (YLP plus online conference and courses)

For all online conferences, there is a last day for registration, after which no additions or new registrations can be made. After this date, teacher coordinators can contact info@montessori-mun.org to verify whether any flexibility in adding delegates is possible. YFBW shall have sole discretion to accept any requested changes to existing delegations or to accept new registrations, said discretion to be exercised in good faith and to be based on event and committee space, and financial and scheduling considerations.

This date is also the deadline for swapping out delegates for MMUN.

Refund Policies (please read carefully)

Registration constitutes acceptance of the no refund policy and waiver of all rights to claim additional amounts other than those expressly provided for herein, including, without limitation, any and all expectation damages, reliance damages, and compensatory damages.

Refunds of fees that have been paid arising out of a change, revision, modification, alteration, or participation cancellation that is communicated in writing to YFBW prior to the EFCD may be issued, in YFBW's sole discretion which shall not be unreasonably withheld. Registrant acknowledges and agrees that a ten percent (10%) processing fee shall be applied and deducted from the refund that Registrants receive. This potential refund is exclusive of any and all payments, fees, or other charges including, without limitation, transportation and travel expenses, incurred by Registrant in reliance on its anticipated attendance. Notice of cancellation must be given in writing and must be received by YFBW prior to 5pm EST on the EFCD. Registrants shall be required to pay all fees, expenses, and other charges associated with each and every participant including, without limitation, all registration fees.

A request to transfer the course value of a registration to a different course or to another individual is possible, in YFBW's sole discretion, if the request is made in writing thirty-one (31) days or more prior to the scheduled event (info@montessori-mun.org). The request's date will be judged according to the Eastern Standard Time ("EST") on date of receipt. No refunds shall be issued for any reason.
