Policies for All Programs, Events, and Courses

Financial Policies

Financial Commitment Deadline for Year Long Programs and Courses

Registrants acknowledge and warrant that, as of the Early Financial Commitment Deadline (hereinafter, “EFCD”), Registrants are bound to the composition of their group for all programs including, without limitation, the following:

- (1) the final and total number of participants who will participate;
- (2) the type and nature of Registrants’ Event, Programme or Activity Package, along with all information reasonably related and/or requested thereto; and
- (3) the final and total number of hotel rooms that Registrants shall use (onsite conferences only).

Registrants are only allowed to decrease participation by 20% prior to the EFCD and any additional decrease will incur the "Participant Drop Fee" (please see "Participation Drop Fee" section below. No decrease is allowed after the EFCD and groups are fully financially liable for all participants entered.

Registrants acknowledge and warrant that the EFCD date locks in the minimum number of the registered participants for the group. From this point forward, the Registrant is financially responsible for the full and timely payment of all fees, expenses, and other charges associated with each and every participant identified in the registration, including, without limitation, all registration fees associated therewith.

No reductions are allowed to these participant numbers after the EFCD. Please note that the EFCD for Year Long Programs (“YLP”) with online conferences and for online courses are never possible, as the EFCD is at the time the initial registration of the group is submitted.

A request by Registrant to add additional participants to a delegation after the EFCD may, in YFBW’s sole discretion, be accepted into the Registrant’s group as event and room space, travel, health, and financial and scheduling considerations permit.

Once a Registrant submits its registration, on or before the EFCD, the Registrant is expected and required to timely pay all fees, expenses, and other charges associated with each and every participant, including, without limitation, all registration fees associated therewith. Failure to make payment does not release Registrant from the obligation to pay the required fees.

Registrants acknowledge and agree that they shall not be entitled to any refund, reimbursement, or compensation for any reason including, without limitation, force majeure circumstances as outlined herein, past the EFCD even if payment has not yet been completed. Registrants further covenant and agree that they shall not institute any chargeback or reimbursement request with their respective banking institutions or credit card Companies once the initial registration of the group has been submitted or initial payment has been authorized, for fees, expenses, and other charges owed in connection with the final number of participants identified by Registrants in their registrations (“Wrongful Chargeback Request”). Registrants shall be liable for the full extent, nature, and type of losses, charges, fees, damages, injuries, and penalties incurred by YFBW as a result of any Wrongful Chargeback Requests initiated or authorized by Registrants.

Final Payment Deadline and Liability Fees

All payments due by Registrants as of the Early Financial Commitment Deadline (“EFCD”), may be made at anytime up to and including the Final Payment Deadline (“FPD”). Registrants acknowledge and agree that any outstanding fees (after the FPD deadline) shall be deemed late and that a late fee of thirty percent (30%) will be imposed by YFBW and incurred by Registrants for all of the remaining balance due. All fees (including liability surcharges) must be paid prior to the Step 3 deadline, when the position papers are due. Following the step 3 deadline, if any charges remain unpaid, registrants must also receive approval for participation with the understanding that an additional liability fee equal to another 30% of the balance due must be paid by Registrants. Nonetheless, YFBW has the right to not accept registrants if they have not paid all charges and liability fees in full by the step 3 deadline. Moreover, please note that payment of all fees must be completed before conference dates. Under no circumstances will delegations be allowed to participate without having paid in full all fees (including all liability fees), before the arrival of the registrants at the conference, for their full participation group.

“Participant Drop Fee” Penalty: Attrition Clause for Major Reductions PRIOR to the EFCD

In the event that a twenty percent (20%) or greater attrition of the number of participants occurs between Registrants’ original delegation registration date and the EFCD, Registrants acknowledge and agree that a fee of one hundred fifty dollars (USD $150.00) for the YLP and conferences per participant (delegate or adult) will be imposed by YFBW, incurred by Registrants, and added to the registration total in 'step 2a' to be paid by Registrants by the FPD. Only YFABW staff will be able to make changes to delegation sizes after the completion of Step I. All changes in delegation size after Step I completion will be made through request at info@montessori-mun.org.

Last Date for Registration (YLP plus online conference and courses)

For all online conferences, there is a last day for registration, after which no additions or new registrations can be made. After this date, teacher coordinators can contact info@montessori-mun.org to verify whether any flexibility in adding delegates is possible. YFBW shall have sole discretion to accept any requested changes to existing delegations or to accept new registrations, said discretion to be exercised in good faith and to be based on event and committee space, and financial and scheduling considerations.

This date is also the deadline for swapping out delegates for MMUN.

Any and all questions, inquiries, and concerns regarding hotel room rates, services, accommodations, policies, guidelines, and terms of service must be communicated to us directly. Unless we have granted a Registrant prior written permission to do so, Registrants shall not be permitted to negotiate or engage directly with the hotel(s) regarding hotel room rates, services, accommodations, policies, guidelines, or terms of service.

Local participants submitting the required documentation (for schools closer than 50 miles from the location of the conference) can purchase an alternate YLP with Onsite Conference package (which excludes the room accommodations) if desired, or a combination thereof.

Participant Categories

All participants have to register for the conference (students, coordinators and observers adults and children).

Participation Policies

Coordinator Preparation Ratio

One (1) coordinator may only prepare a maximum of thirty-five (35) students for a single conference. A school must register additional coordinators if the number of delegates is higher.

Teacher/Chaperone to Delegate Ratios (YLP plus Onsite Conferences and Events)

One (1) chaperone must be registered for every eight (8) students for upper elementary delegates (Teacher coordinators are included in the chaperone ratio).

One (1) chaperone must be registered for every fifteen (15) students for middle school delegates (Teacher coordinators are included in the chaperone ratio).

Only participants designated as chaperones during the registration process are authorized to pick-up and accompany student delegates. Student delegates will not be released from their committee rooms without a registered school chaperone (vs. an observer or a visitor) present to collect them. Please refer to chaperone guidelines for additional information.

Non-Delegate Underage Observers (On-site MMUN Conferences)

All MMUN non-delegate children must be registered as underage-observers to access the venue. In addition, parents must present ID to Security on-site to verify the age of the child and acquire a one-time wristband to be worn for the duration of the conference.

Underage 0

Children under 1 year of age will be admitted to all evening events at the hotel venue including the Opening Ceremony, Cultural Performance Night, and Celebration Night.

Underage 1-7

Children between ages 1 and 7 are not permitted to attend committee sessions or the UN Closing Ceremony; however, they will be admitted to all evening events at the hotel venue including the Opening Ceremony, Cultural Performance Night and Celebration Night, if they are registered for the conference as an underage non-delegate child (1-7).

Ages 8 And Up

Children ages 8 and up will be admitted to all events including Opening Ceremony, Committee Sessions, Cultural Performance Night, and the Closing Ceremony at the UN. Although the UN reserves the right to refuse any children under 9, it has been our experience that 8- year-olds have not been denied entry.

YFBW has no control over UN actions and takes no responsibility if a child who is less than 9 years old is refused entry. Participants acknowledge and agree that they shall not be entitled to any refunds, credits, or other reimbursements from YFBW in connection with any child or adult who is refused entry for any reason.

Refund Policies (please read carefully)

Registration constitutes acceptance of the no refund policy and waiver of all rights to claim additional amounts other than those expressly provided for herein, including, without limitation, any and all expectation damages, reliance damages, and compensatory damages.

Refunds of fees that have been paid arising out of a change, revision, modification, alteration, or participation cancellation that is communicated in writing to YFBW prior to the EFCD may be issued, in YFBW's sole discretion which shall not be unreasonably withheld. Registrant acknowledges and agrees that a ten percent (10%) processing fee shall be applied and deducted from the refund that Registrants receive. This potential refund is exclusive of any and all payments, fees, or other charges including, without limitation, transportation and travel expenses, incurred by Registrant in reliance on its anticipated attendance. Notice of cancellation must be given in writing and must be received by YFBW prior to 5pm EST on the EFCD. Registrants shall be required to pay all fees, expenses, and other charges associated with each and every participant including, without limitation, all registration fees.

A request to transfer the course value of a registration to a different course or to another individual is possible, in YFBW's sole discretion, if the request is made in writing thirty-one (31) days or more prior to the scheduled event (info@montessori-mun.org). The request's date will be judged according to the Eastern Standard Time ("EST") on date of receipt. No refunds shall be issued for any reason

Force Majeure (All Programs, Events and Courses)

The performance by either Party of the terms provided for herein, and of all Agreement(s) in connection with Conference(s) or other Event(s) held by YFBW, is subject to acts of God, war, government regulation, disasters, fires, viral outbreaks (including COVID-19), epidemics/pandemics, diseases, quarantines, strikes, terrorism or threats of terrorism, civil disorders, curtailment of transportation facilities preventing or unreasonably delaying at least 25% of Conference or Event attendees and guests from participating at the Conference or Event, or other similar causes including emergency or non-emergency conditions, beyond the control of the parties making it inadvisable, illegal, impossible, or commercially impractical to hold the Conference or Event or to perform under the terms provided for herein. In the event of a force majeure event, YFBW may: convert the event to an online event (while this is the most likely solution, nothing herein shall be construed as a guarantee that this option will be the selected solution), cancel the event entirely or postpone a Conference or Event upon written notice to Registrants. YFBW shall not be forced to bear any loss, liability, costs, fees, or expenses incurred by Registrants as a result of, or in connection with, any conversion, cancellation, or postponement of a Conference or Event. In the case of a postponement, the postponement date will be announced within twenty (20) days of the notice of postponement.

Case of Onsite Conference Conversion to Online Conference due to Force Majeure

For those who register for an onsite conference for 2023, in the case of an inability to deliver a conference due to force majeure, at YFBW's sole discretion which shall not be unreasonably withheld:

- Participants will be automatically enrolled in the ad hoc online conference. The online conference would be held over the same period from Wednesday to Sunday based upon 3,5 hour Zoom sessions:
 - Wednesday: Orientation, Opening Ceremony, and Committee Session (3.5 hours)
 - Thursday: Committee Session (3.5 hours) + Cultural Party (60 minutes)
 - Friday: Committee Session (3.5 hours) + Fellow Student Ambassador Speed Meet-ups (60 minutes)
 - Saturday: Committee Session (3.5 hours)
 - Sunday: Closing Ceremony + Celebration Festival (90 minutes)
- Equivalent compensation would be given for the difference between the paid registration of the participants for the YLP plus onsite conference vs. the YLP plus online conference fees with:
 - 100% of the difference paid will be issued if the cancellation occurs before the 31st of December 2022.
 - 80% of the difference paid will be issued if the cancellation occurs after the 31st of December 2022 (this is due to the unrecoverable costs which are incurred and committed to as the conference dates become closer).
- No other refunds will be allowed. If Participants choose not to participate in the ad hoc online conference, they will not be entitled to any refund.

Case of Postponement of Conference or Event due to Force Majeure

In the event that any event must be postponed as a result of a force majeure occurrence as provided for herein, all registration fees shall be rolled over and applied to the postponed event date automatically. Registrants acknowledge and agree that they shall not be entitled to ANY REFUND for registration fees that have been paid for an event that has been postponed, even if they elect not to attend the postponed event.

Behavioral Policies (All Programs)

Plagiarism

YFBW defines plagiarism as the knowing and willful attempt to use the thoughts, ideas, or words of someone else as one's own, wherein "knowing" is found where the writer knew or should have known that the he/she was using the thoughts, ideas, or words of someone else.

MMUN Position Papers are required to have proper citations. When writing a position paper, delegates must cite work properly, not only to avoid plagiarism, but to effectively use a quote to bolster a position. In order to avoid plagiarism, a delegate should only use the exact words or ideas of a source in a quotation with proper citations. Plagiarism or allegations of it will be dealt with holistically, with consequences including the demotion to observer status or expulsion from the conference. No Registrant, delegate, or delegation shall be entitled to any type of refund arising out of, or in connection with, the demotion from a delegate to an observer delegate as a result of position papers which are found or believed to contain plagiarized content.

The Design artwork and any accompanying text submitted for YFBW design competitions must also be completely original in both concept and creative design. All entries must be created solely for the current contest. Artwork from previous contest submissions or artwork that is based upon ideas or images created by others is not acceptable for submission. YFBW reserves the right to request proof of originality from the delegate's school at any time. Noncompliance with this rule will result in immediate disqualification. Participants are solely responsible for any infringement of copyrighted materials, as well as any production and/or material costs YFBW incurs following the known or inadvertent submission of a plagiarized image, slogan, or work.

Participants covenant and agree to indemnify and hold YFBW harmless from and against any and all damages, losses, costs, liabilities and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) arising out of or related to any claim of infringement or violation of any third party's Intellectual Property Rights by Participant and/or any and all content submitted by Participant or on Participant's behalf including, without limitation, any written, visual, and audio content, artwork, design elements or works, or accompanying text.

Code of Conduct

During all YFBW program events, all participants need to respect the diplomatic nature of the event at all times, particularly in their words and actions. Participants must always act in a respectful and polite manner toward all other participants. The Parties acknowledge and agree that YFBW shall not be directly or contributorily liable for any defamatory, disparaging, damaging, harmful, or negative comments that are published, initiated, or made by any delegates, delegations, Registrants, or any other third-party individuals or entities who are not employed by YFBW. YFBW shall not be liable for any criminal or civil liability arising from, or related to, any act, representation, or omission effectuated by any delegates, delegations, Registrants, or any other third-party individuals or entities who are not employed by YFBW.

Dress Code

All participants must dress appropriately, be polite and use proper manners, so as to show respect for your fellow participants, for the work being done and for the United Nations.

For all YLP events, refer to the following dress code \(see link\).

Coordinator Accessibility During YLP Events

Coordinators must provide a functioning telephone number (or whatsapp /wechat number) that will be useful during the hours of all events in case any issue arises.

Authorizations (All Programs, All Events)

Coordinators are Responsible for Authorization on All Activities on Behalf of all participants as well as acceptance of all policies

If a certified coordinator submits registrations for participants (students and adults) in any of the programs and events, including optional activities, this submission is considered explicit authorization for participation in said event, program, course and acceptance of all policies.

YFBW does not require proof of this authorization from parents or guardians given the explicit authorizations to teachers from parents or guardians for student participation in school (and after school) activities, but reserves the right to request evidence or documentation of such authorization from parents, guardians, teachers, or anyone acting or appearing on behalf of Registrants.

A certified coordinator is responsible for communicating and obtaining acceptance of all policies on behalf of all participants (including observers and chaperones).

Coordinators are Responsible for Authorization on All Activities on Behalf of Participants

Photo and Video Policy (All Programs, All Events)

Youth for a Better World, Inc. D/B/A Montessori Model UN (“YFBW”) believes that using photos, videos and other digital media (“the Images”) of participants at our YLP program events, conferences, seminars, committees, workshops and related activities fosters a greater sense of community and enhances the quality of our informational and presentation materials.

Authorization to be Recorded and Streamed

By registering for the YLP programs and events, Registrants expressly acknowledge and consent to being photographed, filmed and recorded, including live streaming to sites (e.g. YouTube, Vimeo or other).

Registrants further represent, warrant, and covenant that they have obtained written consent, permission, and/or authorization from all of their participants, students and agents appearing or attending the events on their behalf, to be photographed, filmed and recorded, including live streamed to a site (e.g. YouTube, Vimeo or other). Registrants, (including Registrants’ participants, students, and agents) expressly waive any and all claims, demands, lawsuits, and causes of action (“Claims”) arising out of the allegation, position, or contention that their image or likeness was used, reproduced, modified, adapted, published, disseminated, distributed, or displayed for informational, educational, commercial, or promotional purposes without their consent, permission, or authorization. Registrants expressly agree by their registration that they agree to the use of eventimages for informational, educational, commercial, and promotional purposes (only first names, pictures and schools would be disclosed). No compensation is provided for the use of such images, nor is any received by YFBW.

In the event a media organization wishes to print or present to the general public any of the Images that contain your image, or wish to contact you for a quote or interview, we will not release your personal information without your written permission.

As a participant in YFBW onsite events, registrants have a right to opt-out of inclusion in photographs ONLY if the registrant has signed and delivered to YFBW the Image and Media OPT-OUT form (for onsite events). Without having executed and delivered the OPT-OUT document, participation in YFBW activities implies permission for the use of images taken during those activities.

Certified Coordinators are Responsible for Safeguarding Access to the Registration System

Certified coordinators are responsible for keeping all their passwords, usernames, log-in credentials, and access information (“Access Information”) safe, protected, and guarded against unauthorized use and disclosure. In the event that an actual or attempted unauthorized use or disclosure of said information occurs, teacher coordinators acknowledge and agree that they shall be solely responsible and that YFBW shall not be held liable for any actual or attempted unauthorized use or disclosure of Access Information. Coordinators further agree to hold YFBW harmless from and against any and all damages, losses, costs, liabilities and expenses (including reasonable attorneys’ fees) arising out of or related to any unauthorized use or disclosure of Access Information including, without limitation, all errors, mistakes, changes, or modifications (whether desired or undesired) made to a YLP program, event or conference registration on behalf of the teacher coordinator.

Purchases (All Programs, Events, Goods, Products, & Materials)

If you wish to purchase any YFBW product or service (including registrations to YLP programs, events, courses, workshops, etc.), you may elect to pay with an electronic form of payment including, without limitation, a credit card, debit card, wire or bank transfer, PayPal, Wise (formerly TransferWise), etc. Based upon the registrant’s payment choice, they will be asked to supply certain payment related information including, but not limited to, a credit card number, debit card number, or other payment method(s) account numbers, expiration date of a credit or debit card, associated billing address, etc. The registrant represents and warrants that:

- (i) they have the legal right to use the relevant payment option connected to the Purchase, i.e., they are an authorized account holder or have obtained the authorized account holder(s)’ express authorization to make the Purchase; and
- (ii) that the payment information they supply to YFBW is true, correct and complete.

YFBW employs the use of third-party payment processors for the purpose of facilitating the payment and completion of Purchases. By submitting registrant’s information and the relevant payment information, the registrant grants us the right to provide the information to these third parties subject to our Privacy Policy. Registrant acknowledges that its payment information will be used by our third-party payment processors to effectuate Registrant’s payment transaction(s) and that the use of Registrant’s payment details, once such payment details are transmitted to the third-party payment processor(s), may be governed by the third-party payment processors’ applicable privacy policies and terms of service.

YFBW reserves the right to refuse or cancel your order at any time for reasons including but not limited to:

- product or service availability;
- errors in the description or price of the product or service;
- error in the registrant’s order or other reasons.

YFBW reserves the right to refuse or cancel a registrant’s order if fraud or an unauthorized or illegal transaction is suspected.

Purchase & Delivery of Souvenir from the YFBW Online Shop

For non-personalized products purchased through our online shop, YFBW will accept for return, replacement or refund any item returned within ten (10) calendar days of purchase under the following conditions:

- If the product is defective, YFBW will reimburse the customer for shipping/postage and replace the product or exchange it for a product of the customer's choice of an equal or lesser value.
- YFBW will not reimburse the customer for products returned due to purchase of the wrong size, although if available, YFBW will exchange the product for one with the proper size. In such case, the new shipping/postage costs shall be at the expense of the customer.

Specific MMUN Conference Policies

Committee Composition

Final committee room placement will be determined by the number of participants for a particular committee. Large committees may have multiple sections meeting in more than one room. Additionally, UE and MS delegates will be placed together in the same committee room when the combined number of delegates optimizes the functioning of the committee.

Position Paper Policies

Responsibility for Position Paper Content

Each country's delegation within each committee, as a whole, is responsible for both committee topics. YFBW strongly suggests that the two country member delegates for each committee collaborate on creating their position papers since both delegates must be familiar with both topics and be involved throughout the negotiation process of each topic.

YFBW does not control the amount of time spent on each topic in committee, therefore both delegates need to be equally invested in both topics. Furthermore, the online conferences require both delegates to contribute constructively and independently to the development of resolutions for both topics (regardless of who originally wrote the position paper).

Single Delegate Representatives

In the case of a delegation with only one delegate, this single representative must submit two position papers. All single delegates must be declared during Registration in Step 1.

Position Paper Submission Deadlines & Consequences

Position papers must be uploaded into the registration system by the published deadline. If not, the delegate(s) will be automatically considered an observer delegate(s).

Necessity of Position Paper Acceptance

MMUN's bureau will review the position papers of all delegates. If problems exist on the quality of a position paper, the bureau will reach out to the coordinator with comments and suggestions for submission of an updated paper no earlier than 2 weeks prior to the conference date. If a satisfactory updated paper is not submitted at least 2 weeks prior to the conference and approved by the bureau, the delegate will become an observer delegate.

Observer Delegate

An observer delegate has not submitted a Bureau accepted position paper before the conference. An observer delegate is:

- (i) unable to participate in discussions,
- (ii) For onsite conferences: the observer delegate must be:
 - a. seated in the observer section and

- b. is required to have a school chaperone accompanying them at all times during an onsite conference.
- (iii) For online conferences, these delegates can observe in the zoom committee sessions.

No Registrant, delegate, or delegation shall be entitled to any type of refund, credit, or reimbursement arising out of, or in connection with, their conversion from a delegate to an observer delegate as a result of position papers which are deemed unsatisfactory, which are not timely submitted (or re-submitted where re-submission of an updated paper is required), and/or which are not brought to a satisfactory level within the 2-week time frame set by YFBW.

Committee Sizes (online only)

All committees for online conferences will be limited to approximately 50 delegates. Teacher Coordinators and Adult Observers will not be allowed in the Committee sessions.

Coordinators and Observers

Adults who are not YFBW employees or volunteers are not allowed to ever be present in virtual MMUN committee rooms. Online conferences offer a live stream of committee sessions, Opening and Closing Ceremonies. The link for observation will be provided under YFBW direction to the certified coordinator or to the email addresses indicated in the registration system. Only those school-authorized observers (i.e., those adults declared and paid for within the YFBW registration portal) are authorized to access the streamed committee sessions. YFBW holds the certified coordinators responsible for the correct authorized sharing of these streaming links (i.e., not sharing them with unauthorized persons who are not formally registered in the registration system). YFBW is not liable for any damages, losses, costs, liabilities or expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) arising out of or related to the unauthorized disclosure, publication, dissemination, or use of the same.

For China, livestreaming is not technically possible so either the registrant uses a VPN or they can view the recorded committee session the following day through a private Video-on-Demand link that YFBW will provide the following day.

Registered adults in the YLP plus conferences have access to dedicated workshops and coordinator and parent meet-ups during the course of the year.

Songwriting Workshop

In the songwriting workshop, MMUN delegates work to create an original song (“Audio Work”) based upon an SDG theme. Teacher coordinators explicitly authorize YFBW and any contracted artist or independent contractor to use all drafts, versions, and final products for promotion, informational, commercial, and/or educational purposes. To the extent that any Audio Work, or individual component, portion, section, or segment thereof, is created or developed by Registrants and/or their respective delegates, participants, agents, representatives, or affiliates in connection with the songwriting workshop or YFBW event, Registrants agree and covenant that the Audio Work is for the sole and exclusive use of YFBW and that YFBW shall be deemed the sole and exclusive owner of all rights, title, and interest therein, including all Copyright and proprietary rights relating thereto throughout the universe in perpetuity. Accordingly, Registrants and their respective delegates, participants, agents, representatives, or affiliates will and do assign to YFBW all rights, title, and interest they may possess in such Audio Work(s) including, but not limited to, all Copyright and proprietary rights relating thereto.

Upon request, Registrants and/or their respective delegates, participants, agents, representatives, or affiliates shall take such steps as are necessary to enable YFBW to secure and/or register copyrights or obtain any such other protection for such compositions, ideas, concepts, processes, or the like.

YFBW shall have the right to use or not use the Audio Work(s) and to use, reproduce, re-use, alter, modify, edit, or change the Audio Work(s) as it sees fit and for any purpose.

YFBW reserves the right to use any eventual proceeds from the distributions or sale of the original work to support the MMU Scholarship fund or any other charitable cause or initiative that YFBW designates.

Specific Online Program & Event Policies (All Programs, All Events, and Courses)

Disclaimer on Quality of Streamed Events

YFBW makes no guarantees, either express or implied, concerning connectivity, speed, and audio/visual quality (“Technical Issues”) associated with online events and Registrants acknowledge and agree that various third-party platforms, equipment, hardware, and software which fall outside the control of YFBW may be to blame for Technical Issues that are experienced or encountered before, during, or after the online events.

No Registrant, student or participant shall be entitled to any type of refund arising out of, or in connection with, any connectivity or audio/video quality issues experienced with respect to online programs, events and activities.

Video Usage (All Virtual Events and Courses)

Students and Course Participants must have videos enabled, unless otherwise specified during the event.

IT Prerequisites (ALL Online programs, events, courses)

Best video streaming performance can only be achieved with an upload speed of at least 3 MBPS and at least a quad core computer. Participants are welcome to participate with lower quality connections and hardware, however, YFBW is not responsible for dropped calls, poor video quality, or unstable Internet connections during online events.

Specific Onsite Event Policies (All Programs, Activities and Courses Onsite)

Hotel Reservations for Onsite Conferences

Management of Registrant's hotel reservations and accommodations relating thereto must be made directly through YFBW.

Based on YFBW's contract with the hotel, YFBW is the only party authorized to discuss, modify, change, alter, or cancel your reservation. Do not contact the hotel directly. Any actual or attempted modifications, changes, alterations, cancellations, or bookings made by a Registrant directly with the hotel, rather than through YFBW, may be deemed void or may not be honored. Registrant shall bear any and all fees, charges, and expenses resulting from Registrant's actual or attempted modifications, changes, alterations, cancellations, or bookings made by Registrant directly with the hotel, rather than through YFBW.

Room blocks and special requests will be considered but are not guaranteed and are based on hotel availability.

Registrants acknowledge and agree that hotel reservations and accommodations are governed by the hotel's policies and procedures, which YFBW has no control over. As such, Registrants agree to fully comply with all hotel policies, procedures, and obligations. Registrants further agree that they shall indemnify, protect, defend and hold harmless YFBW, its officers, directors, managers, employees, agents, representatives, and affiliates from and against all claims, losses, liabilities, suits, and demands ("Claims"), including necessary expenses of investigation and reasonable attorneys' fees, arising out of, involving, or in connection with, the use and/or occupancy of the venue and venue services or accommodations by Registrants, as well as those Claims in which it may be asserted that Registrants, directly or indirectly, breached, violated, or attempted to breach or violate any hotel policy or procedure.

Disclaimer on Liability for COVID-19 or other Health Issues

YFBW endeavors to provide appropriate health and safety conditions for onsite participants at all events. Nonetheless, all onsite participants, including, without limitation, Registrants, delegates, students, chaperones, teacher coordinators, observers, attendees, and guardians of minors (authorized by their teacher coordinators and chaperones) (collectively, "Onsite Participants") hereby waive and release, in advance, any claims, demands, liabilities, losses, damages, or causes of action, whether known or unknown, now existing or hereafter arising, against YFBW or its directors, officers, members, managers, affiliates, employees, or agents, which might accrue to a minor child or adult for personal injury or death, and property damage resulting from participation in, or attendance at, any on-site conference, event, program, course, or activity. This release is intended to be as broad and inclusive as permitted by the laws of the State of New York and if any portion thereof is held invalid it is agreed that the balance of this agreement shall remain in effect. YFBW takes no responsibility for the inherent risk of participation to any onsite participant. Registration and/or attendance at an onsite conference constitutes acceptance of the health and safety policy and waiver of all rights to claim additional amounts other than those expressly provided for herein, including, without limitation, any and all expectation damages, reliance damages, and compensatory damages.

With the exception of rules, regulations, guidelines, policies, and best practices that affect maximum occupancy limits, YFBW reserves the right to implement and enforce its own COVID-19 and related variants related rules, regulations, guidelines, policies, and best practices ("COVID-19 Policies") which reflect and encompass (i) local government COVID-19 Policies of the jurisdiction in which the onsite conference is located, including the United Nations current COVID-19 Policies, and/or (ii) COVID-19 Policies of the U.S. Department of Health & Human Services, Centers for Disease Control and Prevention ("CDC"), provided, however, that applicable local or available to the general public no less than ninety (90) days prior to the date of the onsite conference to allow YFBW a reasonable period of time to take all necessary health and safety measures, precautions, and safeguards required for compliance with the applicable COVID-19 Policies. With respect to local or CDC rules, regulations, guidelines, policies, and best practices that affect maximum occupancy limits and that are promulgated after August 1, 2022, YFBW shall strive to comport with all such rules to the extent reasonably feasible but reserves the right to convert any 2023 onsite spring conference into an online conference if it determines, in the interest of participant safety, that it would be unable to timely, effectively, and reasonably comport with any such rules. All Onsite Participants acknowledge that they shall be required to fully, and at all times, comply with YFBW's COVID-19 Policies and agree to fully comply with their individual and/or group obligations under YFBW's COVID-19 Policies, which may include, without limitation, obtaining COVID-19 testing or vaccinations (and providing documentation of the same), wearing personal protective equipment ("PPE" including face masks), quarantining, etc. All Onsite Participants acknowledge and agree that they shall fully, and at all times, comply with all reasonable directives, instructions, requirements, and measures communicated or taken by YFBW in connection with enforcement of YFBW's COVID-19 Policies.

If, prior to the date of the onsite conference, New York City or the State of New York propounds COVID-19-related rules, regulations, guidelines, policies, or best practices requiring any measures to be implemented, the YFBW COVID-19 Policies shall automatically update to reflect said rules. All Onsite Participants acknowledge that they shall fully comply with the same, and waive any and all claims, demands, liabilities, losses, damages, or causes of action ("Claims"), whether known or unknown, now existing or hereafter arising, against YFBW or its directors, officers, members, managers, affiliates, employees, or agents arising from or connected to the foregoing requirements

Notwithstanding any applicable local or CDC COVID-19 Policies to the contrary, the YFBW COVID-19 Policies require that an Onsite Participant who, at any time material hereto, tests positive for COVID-19 or displays any recognized COVID-19 symptom including, without limitation, fever, cough, fatigue, breathing difficulties, etc. (“COVID-19 Symptoms”), be immediately quarantined from all other Onsite Participants (other than as needed to reasonably supervise or provide medical care and attention to the affected Onsite Participant) and from all YFBW-sponsored or -organized events unless and until the affected Onsite Participant (i) receives a negative COVID-19 test result, AND (ii) no longer displays any COVID-19 Symptoms. YFBW is not responsible for any costs, fees, expenses, or charges incurred by the affected Onsite Participant in connection with resulting medical care or quarantine measures including, without limitation, medical, hotel, venue, and transportation expenses arising from or connected to the same. Affected Onsite Participants shall not be entitled to ANY refund of fees that have been paid or that remain due or outstanding for any period of time during which they are denied entry to, or participation in, the onsite conference or any other YFBW-sponsored or -organized events as a result of their having tested positive for COVID-19 or having displayed any recognized COVID-19 Symptoms. Under no circumstances shall YFBW be responsible for the cost or expense of any Onsite Participant’s COVID-19 test(s), vaccination(s), or medical care.

Each Onsite Participant acknowledges and agrees that it shall not be entitled to ANY refund of fees that have been paid or that remain due or outstanding if it is denied entry to, or participation in, the onsite conference or any other YFBW-sponsored or -organized events as a result of the Onsite Participant’s noncompliance with any part of the YFBW COVID-19 Policies. YFBW is not responsible for any damages incurred by Onsite Participants as a result of their noncompliance, or of another Onsite Participant’s noncompliance, with any part of the YFBW COVID-19 Policies.

In an effort to mitigate medical or health-related issues that may arise, Registrants are required to formulate, draft, and have in effect an Emergency Medical Plan outlining both the preventative and remedial measures, safeguards, and protocols that the Registrant (i) has implemented to prevent any medical or health-related issues among its delegates, chaperones, teacher coordinators, observers, attendees, and students, and (ii) would implement to mitigate, remedy, and address any medical or health-related issues that arise among its delegates, chaperones, teacher coordinators, observers, attendees, and students. Registrants alone shall be responsible for properly educating and training their chaperones, teacher coordinators, etc. in accordance with Registrants’ Emergency Medical Plans and YFBW hereby disclaims any and all liability arising from Registrants’ failure to implement or enforce an acceptable Emergency Medical Plan or from Registrants’ failure to properly educate and train their chaperones, teacher coordinators, etc. in accordance therewith.
