

NYC CONFERENCE FEBRUARY 21-24, 2024

SONGWRITING WORKSHOP WITH CHAD HARPER

Students can work with Chad Harper to write and record original songs on SDG themes. Through this creative process, students learn to compose, record, and perform original music with other delegates. Today, Chad is an educator, Hip Hop artist, humanitarian, music producer, song writer, videographer, video editor and founder and CEO of Hip Hop Saves Lives {HHSL}.

HOW TO APPLY

Calling all Singers, Rappers, Poets, Public Speakers and musicians! Let's come together and create magic through music for SDG goal number 1, NO POVERTY! Interested students please write five brief bullet points highlighting why the conference-specific SDG is important to you and how you envision making a change.

SONGWRITING SESSIONS

The participants must attend the online songwriting sessions (dates: February 12, 13, 14 – 10/11 AM ET). Then the songwriting participants will meet up on the first day of the conference and have a quick rehearsal on both Thursday February 22 and Friday February 23 in NYC, with the performance on Celebration Night.

DEADLINE

Upload by the Step 3 deadline (December 6, 2023). Coordinators are contacted if one of the delegates in their group will be selected.
