Topic: "Equal Representation of Women"

United Nations Entity for Gender Equality and Empowerment of Women, reminding all nations of the importance of the sustainable development goals to develop equality between men and women in international communities. The 17th sustainable goals of the 2030 agenda was adopted by world leaders in January 2016 it came into force.

Deeply concerned that many young women are denied their right to an education in order to raise a family, Aware of the situation in many countries where, due to their religion/culture, many women are not able to voice themselves to their greatest potential, Bearing in mind that without equal representation the world cannot progress, Appreciating the previous actions that have been taken in many programmes while still recognizing the work that needs to be done, Alarmed by the amount of young girls that are being forced into marriage from a young age, Deeply disturbed by the fact that many women across the world never have a chance to inherit money or property,

1. Recommends the ministry of education to include regular sessions that promote equality between genders and women's equal rights in the curriculum;
2. Hopes to achieve 50% participation of women in parliament;
3. Requests equal representation of women for inheritance of family property;
4. Recommends the government to take steps;
  - i. To create child care for working women;
  - ii. To allow maternity leave for the last 4 months with full salary in all member states;

5. Further requests all member states to give women equal access to legal representations and opportunities to pursue justice against perpetrators of violence through the formal legal system;
6. Invites member states to hold summits in order to discuss about discrimination against women;
7. Invites the concerned authorities to fund;
  - i. Non-governmental organizations and other women developmental institutions;
  - ii. Homes for orphan girls who are abandoned by their parents;
8. Calls upon banks to provide loans to women working in every sector at low interest rates;
9. Express its hope for industries and institutions in all member states to provide equal wages to women and also give advance salary in case of emergency.
