

Committee: United Nations Security Council (UNSC)

Co-sponsors: Republic of Chad, Republic of France, United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, United States of America.

Topic: ISIS

Bearing in mind that the article 44 of the UN charter states, “when the Security Council has decided to use force it shall, before calling upon a member not represented on it to provide armed forces in fulfillment of obligations assigned under Article 43, invite that members, if the member so desires, to participate in the decisions of the Security Council concerning the employment or contingents of that members armed forces”,

Recalling Security Council resolution 2199 of 2015 which, “calls upon member states to prevent and suppress terrorist acts committed specifically by ISIL and to eradicate the safe haven they have established in Iraq and Syria”,

Alarmed by the 1,321,560 displaced civilians who have fled to Europe seeking asylum,

Convinced that ISIS cannot be eradicated without the usage of military and arms,

Remembering that the terrorist organization ISIS has taken around 19,000 lives in the past two years in Iraq alone,

Recognizing that ISIS is a global threat that does not wish to renegotiate in order to reach certain terms and will work towards eliminating those who stand in their way,

Supporting the actions of programs, such as peace direct, which use civilians in areas of conflict to provide valuable insight, alternative points of view, and prioritize tasks.
