YOUR VOICE FOR GLOBAL AFFAIRS

The ModelUN.New Academy, Journalism, Your Voice & the United Nations, has several offerings to encourage your child's interest in world affairs. We are here to inspire youth to create a better world, a world for which they will be responsible all too soon. Young people have big ideas and even bigger dreams and we help them harness their passion, gather their thoughts and crystallize their vision of how things should be on the planet. Then we give them the necessary skills to go out into the world, armed with all the communication skills they need, to speak up, get answers, and affect actual change.

Your child (aged 10-18) will develop:

- Vital communication and critical thinking skills
- In-depth research and journalistic techniques
- Public speaking, writing and broadcasting knowledge
- Behind-the-scenes insights into global diplomacy and advocacy
- A deep understanding of his or her important place in the world
- Valuable experience that stands out on a university application

Our Academy has four opportunities for your child:
