

SH/2/1.3

General assembly SOCHUM SC.2

Co-sponsors: Japan, Switzerland, UK, Myanmar, India, Turkey, Malaysia, Uruguay, Ecuador, Venezuela, Cuba, Angola, Saudi Arabia, South Korea, and the Philippines.

Topic: Promotion and Protection of the Rights of Children

The General Assembly understands the tough times children have to go through, having received mandatory labor many children have to do, and is alarmed by the abuse many children go through. Observing unavailable nutrients to all children is still a critical issue today.

Expecting that all people have the same view of children.

Bearing in mind the hardships children have to go through.

Taking note that education is key to children in less developed countries.

Alarmed by the abuse children go through.

Observing non-available nutrients to all children is still a critical issue today.

1. Encouraging countries to refrain from sending children under the age of 18 off to any form or branch of the military.
2. Encouraging citizens worldwide to fund schools in developing countries.
3. Emphasizing that children must attend school for at least 20 hours a week unless they have medical injuries, to claim extra food and water and their scholar degree.
4. Desiring countries to encourage children (the age of 16 and under) to attend school to receive their scholar degree.
5. Emphasizing that malnutrition is a problem, all families living in poverty can become farmers, funded by international fundraisers; allowing families to earn money, a job, food, and other necessities.
6. Encourages the UN to manifest a signed treaty proposing that children under the age of 16 are restricted from working without parental consent.
7. Expresses its hope to prevent poverty and decrease child labor, adult members of the family will be given jobs to provide for the family.
8. Proclaims that countries should not marry children under the age of 18.
9. Authorizes the UN to raise money to build centers where children can receive education, medical treatment, and protection.
10. Calls upon advocates to travel through countries to raise awareness about the struggles many children face throughout the world.