

UN Legal

Co-sponsors: Kingdom of Norway, United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, Swiss Confederation, Commonwealth of Australia, Federative Republic of Brazil, Kingdom of Saudi Arabia, United Arab Emirates, Republic of Korea, Republic of India, Syrian Arab Republic

Topic: “Rule of Law”

Having studied the Rule of Law and observing faults in the system,

Convinced that education is key in expanding the Rule of Law,

Reaffirming its commitments to help all willing countries reach a developed level,

Believing in nonviolent solutions and promoting nonviolent implementation of the Rule of Law in all countries,

Fully aware of the Legal Technical Assistance Program that is already in place,

Urging all member states to embark on a peaceful road to world cooperation.

1. Expansion of education through UN resources;
2. Authorizes the UN to relocate refugees from corrupt countries;
3. Recommends funding for Non-Governmental Organizations (NGOs) to provide a temporary home for refugees;
4. Draws attention to the importance of aiding refugees to return to their homeland;
5. Requests NGOs provide education for those who lack knowledge of the Rule of Law;
6. Further supports implementing democracy to better support the Rule of Law;
7. Encourages further assistance to struggling countries;
8. Calls for the expansion of the Legal Technical Assistance Program to spread the Rule of Law;
9. Affirms countries that identify their problems and solutions to prevent issues in the future;
10. Considers sending educators to enhance the knowledge of the Rule of Law.