Dear Teacher Coordinators,

When attending the NYC MMUN conference, the meal options can seem overwhelming – especially with large delegations and limited times for eating. Therefore, we have pulled together a laundry list of restaurants and cafés in the vicinity with different options for price, distance (their location is provided on the map below), opening hours, dietary restrictions, and types of cuisine.

When considering take-away options, please keep in mind that it is strictly prohibited to eat on or in common areas or in the hotel halls.

You must either eat in your room or outside of the hotel.

Some examples of reviews of different restaurants in the area include:

- Some restaurants offer the possibility to order online, while others require you to come in person.
- Please keep in mind that it is strictly forbidden to eat in common areas or in the hotel halls.
- You must either eat in your room or outside of the hotel.
