The Human Rights Council has been preventing the violation of Freedom of Religion or Belief since it was established by the United Nations General Assembly in 2006 and has been working hard to find solutions for these issues,

Fully aware of the problems with freedom of religion or belief occurring around the globe and we hope to solve these problems such as violating rights of religious freedom,

Recognizing the global violence of freedom and religion or belief,

Noting with deep concern that the nation's governments are restricting religious beliefs,

Resolution HRC/Section 1/1.1

1. Calls Upon the United Nations to help finance schools and communities to teach a variety of religions to generations to come, which includes learning to respect other religions;
2. Requests the United Nations to fund this project to build churches and have schools and communities teach different religions;
3. Further requests the United Nations to fund different governments to allow the right to conversion;
4. Trusts the International Religious Liberty Association (I.R.L.A) to help raise public awareness promoting religious freedom to decrease forced religious teachings;
5. Calls upon the peace N.G.O Forum that has helped resolve the war between Israel and Palestine to help prevent religious wars from occurring around the world;
6. Supports Freedom House which is a non- governmental organization that supports the developing of nations that suffer from the lack of media, expression and Human Rights freedom;
7. Encourages large NGO's such as P.N.G.O.F, I.R.L.A and F.H. to continue stride for more freedom of religion or belief; and
8. Further Invites any countries or committees to take action towards resolving this issue.
