

Co-sponsors: Commonwealth of Australia, Federative Republic of Brazil, Kingdom of Saudi Arabia, Republic of India, Republic of Korea, Syrian Arab Republic, United Arab Emirates, United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, Kingdom of Norway, Swiss Confederation

Topic: “Terrorism”

Condemning all acts of terrorism worldwide,

Remembering those killed and wounded in acts of terrorism and counter-terrorism,

Declaring that terrorism must be eradicated,

Reaffirming that terrorism is not limited to one race or religion,

Realizing that violence is rarely a solution,

Convinced that education is necessary for the prevention of future terrorism,

Believing that the involvement of the International Criminal Court in all countries is a crucial step to ending terrorism,

1. Recognizes the importance of strong and reliable democratic governments;
2. Emphasizes the importance of education that promotes access to information, current events, and significant issues;
3. Solemnly affirms that violence is sometimes necessary in appropriate scenarios;
4. Calls upon all countries to cooperate and work together to create a safer world ;
5. Endorses the use of peacekeepers in places with high terror rates to protect civilians;
6. Confirms that the Rule of Law will contribute to the eradication of terrorism;
7. Recommends the enforcement of the UN’s Four Pillars;
8. Encourages member states and NGOs to support programs for victims of terrorism.