

United Nations Security Council

Resolution 1.1

Co-Sponsors: Japan, United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, Arab Republic of Egypt, People's Republic of China, United States of America, Malaysia, Russian Federation, New Zealand, Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela, Kingdom of Spain;

Topic: "Threats to international peace caused by terrorism"

Encourages all countries to recognize the definition of terrorism as 'a violent act to influence a population through fear often to achieve ulterior but sinister motives',

Noting with concern, growth and prevalence of terrorism for the past few decades,

Aware of all the countries experiencing terrorism,

Further alarmed by the effects terrorism is having on undeveloped countries,

Urges countries to make decisions based on knowledge gained from past experiences of terrorism,

1. Calls upon member states to share information on combating terrorism by creating a committee that meets once every four months and after a serious attack to discuss relevant information on how to prevent terrorism;

2. Urges member states to eliminate funding for terrorist groups by creating stronger regulations on the distribution of money throughout the country or organizations;

3. Encourages member states to closely monitor the transfer of money throughout the country and to monitor online platforms;

4. Draw the attention to the trade of weapons by creating a committee to monitor weapons, development, transportation and stock piles; and

5. Further requests proper funding and exchange of materials, knowledge, and education for countries in need.