The Third General Assembly,

Reaffirming that we should educate nations to support resolutions involving the rights of the child,

Believing that all nations should donate money to help children receive healthcare and participate in family and/or community,

Aiming for every country to sign the Declaration on the Rights of the Child,

Deeply concerned that we should enforce child rights laws,

1. Encourages that all nations should build libraries, hospitals, and free schools within short distances for the children;

Resolution GA 3/ Section 1/ 1.1

2. Calls for the development of resolutions that encourage that all children must have education, healthcare, and participation in family community;
3. Requests that countries should create organizations to help promote and make known the Convention of the Rights of the Child;
4. Further recommends that ambassadors come together for annual summits to discuss education for children;
5. Calls on nations to collect government taxes to make dorms for homeless children and their families;
6. Recommends that countries provide lessons for reading and writing;
7. Emphasizes that we send medicine, food, and water; and
8. Encourages that all member states educate organizations and NGOs involving the Rights of the Child.
