

Resolution L1/1.1

Legal 1 Committee

Co-sponsors: Australia, Brazil, China, Cuba, Democratic People's Republic of Korea, Ecuador, Finland, Guatemala, Ireland, Japan, Kazakhstan, Lesotho, Malaysia, Micronesia, Monaco, Mongolia, Mozambique, Saint Lucia, Saint Vincent and the Grenadines, Turkey and Venezuela

Topic: "The Special Committee on the Charter of the United Nations and on the Strengthening of the Role of the Organization"

Taking into account the UN Charter was created in 1945,

Fully aware that the UN may not violate any nations sovereignty,

Bearing in mind that these types of changes are almost definitely inevitable,

Convinced that this is a necessity in order for the UN to thrive,

Deeply concerned that the UN has not been able to resolve the issue,

1. Proposes that some new revisions must be made and the rules of the UN need to be reformed so that there is an equal division of power;
2. Calls upon the various states of the general assembly to contribute 2% of their military budgets for the purpose of UN funding.

3. Further calls upon businesses with a yearly income of $1,000,000 or more to contribute 5% of their income to the UN;
4. Decides to remain actively engaged in the matter;
5. Recommends luxury taxes on all non necessities based on the countries revenue;
6. Proposes that a standard is set beforehand what is considered an acceptable reason for the use of veto;
7. Expresses its hope to add additional taxes on pollution and unnecessary deforestation;
8. Strongly supports reelections every 5 years for permanent and non-permanent members;
9. Recommends adding two representatives from each of the following regions: Oceania, Africa, Asia, Europe, North America and South America to the Security Council;
10. Further requests 2 vetoes to override a resolution.

Resolution L1/1.2
Legal 1 Committee

Co-sponsors:

Topic: “The Special Committee on the Charter of the United Nations and on the Strengthening of the Role of the Organization”

(pre-ambulatory clauses)

(operative clauses)

- 2.
- 3.
- 4.

5.

6.