Topic: Convention on Biological Diversity

Alarmed by the fact that in 2020 alone, 25.8 million hectares of the world's forests were cut down,

Recognizing the fact people are using more plastic than necessary,

Recognizing that we should reduce the production of plastic,

Deeply concerned that all generations are not fully aware of the loss of biodiversity that the world is facing,

Taking into account that funding is difficult in developing countries as they are not as developed as other countries and cannot fund their schools,

Recognizing that our world uses too many fossil fuels,

Emphasizing the need for countries to use alternative energy sources,

Habitats and Animals
