

Resolution UN WOMEN/2.1

UN WOMEN Committee

Co-sponsors: Republic of Argentina, Republic of Austria, Belize, Republic of Benin, Bosnia & Herzegovina, Republic of Chile, Arab Republic of Egypt, Republic of Italy, Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan, Republic of Latvia, Malaysia, Republic of Moldova, Kingdom of Morocco, New Zealand, Islamic Republic of Pakistan, Kingdom of Saudi Arabia, Republic of South Sudan, Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela

Topic: Women's meaningful participation in peace processes

Concerned that women only participated in 19% of UN peace processes in 2023,

Acknowledging the fact that there are more women participating in peace processes this year in Egypt,

Disturbed by the obstacles women face when participating in peace processes worldwide,

Aware that when highly educated women participate in peace processes around the world, the agreements are more successful and inclusive,

Alarmed by the amount of women that are uneducated on the topic of peace,

Deeply concerned by the lack of effort put in educating women on the topic of peace,

Taking note that many women live in certain communities that don't provide free education,

Keeping in mind women who are highly educated put effort into helping peace processes,

Recognizing the lack of childcare for working women,

Expressing concern that women aren't as respected as men in the work industry,

Observing that women aren't as involved with global peacemaking as men,

Emphasizing the need for women in high-ranking jobs, such as political and government jobs,

Acknowledging that women are often not supported by men in leadership roles/positions,

Deeply concerned that women aren't appointed into higher roles/positions more often,

Alarmed by the lack of education on the topic of leadership roles taught to girls,

Recognizing the abundance of non-female authority figures around the world compared to men,

Women's Involvement in the Peace Processes and Peace Making
